THIRD QUARTER 1981

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR:

Dear Members,

It is planning time again--time to make plans to attend the Annual General Meeting in October. It will be held in Atlanta on October 10th and 11th, and we are preparing for a full weekend of fun and research. Letters with complete details will be sent to each member. Please return your registration as soon as possible.

Many thanks to Barbara Winge for helping us with indexing. She very neatly typed over two hundred and fifty 3 x 5 index cards on Stricklands to be added to our file. We desperately need this kind of help, and really appreciate what she has done.

Though you may live many miles away (as Barbara does), there are many small jobs each member can do to make our organization just a little better. Those of you who are not convenient to a state archives or good genealogical library could help us with the many small tasks that are necessary to keep our organization running smoothly. One task we are facing at the moment is compiling a surname index of our quarterly through the 3rd issue. Do we have any volunteers?

I dislike bringing up disagreeable subjects, however, there is one I feel must be discussed--our United States Postal System! It seems to be getting worse by the day. A number of members failed to receive copies of Strickland Scene, and, postcard reminders of membership dues were either never received or took up to 3 months to reach the recipient. As a result, we have decided to place dues reminders in the 4th issue of Strickland Scene. No other reminder will be sent, so be sure to remit your renewal no later than mid-January in order to receive the first issue of the quarterly on time. We are trying to mail each issue by the middle of each quarter (Feb. 15th, May 15th, Aug. 15th, Nov 15th). The quarterly is mailed by 3rd Class Postage and should reach you in 2 to 3 weeks. If you have not received the current issue by the end of the quarter, please let us know.

As our organization expands, we are gaining new members from many different areas of the United States. Many of our new members are interested in Strickland lines in areas other than those in the south. If anyone has abstracts or documents from the New England states (or any state whose records have not been printed in the quarterly), please submit them for use in Strickland Scene.

See you in October.

Sincerely,

Nancy Cornell

STRICKLANDS IN BURROW'S CEMETERY

CRAIGHEAD COUNTY, ARIZONA

Sharon Primeau, a member from Ponca City, Oklahoma, surveyed the Burrow's Cemetery (also referred to as Burr Ridge Cemetery) in the summer of 1977. She describes this cemetery as "in very poor condition, overgrown and evidence that livestock had been in the cemetery. Many of the stones were off their bases. The cemetery is located near Lake City, Arizona, and is near a levee of the St. Francis River, but is quite remote and hard to find. There were some other graves, but the brush was so overgrown I could not get to them."

STRICKLAND REFERENCES IN

THE HISTORY OF MADISON COUNTY GEORGIA by Paul Tabor

The History Of Madison County Georgia by Paul Tabor was published in 1974 by the Madison County, Georgia, Library Board. Calvin G. Floyd, a member of Strickland Research, Inc., carefully abstracted references to Stricklands in this history and obtained permission to reprint these references from Mr. Paul Tabor. Thank you, Calvin, for your excellent job of abstracting; and many thanks to Mr. Tabor for his generosity.

(Editor's Note: A portion of the land which was later to be Madison County was ceded by the Creek and Cherokee Indians on June 1, 1773. The original county of Wilkes was created from this cession on February 5, 1777. By 1796, parts of Wilkes County, plus additional land gained through Creek and Cherokee cessions of 1783, had been taken to form the counties of Elbert, Franklin, Jackson and Oglethorpe. Madison County was created on December 5, 1811, from parts of Clarke, Elbert, Franklin, Jackson and Oglethorpe. Many residents, who had obtained land in original Wilkes County, became residents of several of the above mentioned counties without ever moving from their original plots of land. -NJC)

Madison County, Georgia, was created December 5, 1811. The Act of creating the new county consisted of nine sections.

DO YOU KNOWSTRICKLAND-MCCALL

George McCall, 1180 Bel Marin Keys Blvd., Novato, CA 94947; Desires to correspond with descendants of the following families or anyone with knowledge of them. Delighted to exchange data.

HENRY STRICKLAND, b. 1792 in NC, d. 15 January 1862, Tatt-nall Co., GA.; m. 23 September 1847 to MARTHA MCCALL, his third wife.

JAMES S. STRICKLAND, m. HARRIET PEARCE MCCALL (sister of Martha) in Tatt-nall Co., GA., and moved to Florida.

STRICKLAND

Edra S. Young, 2721 S W 20th St., Miami, FL 33145; Who are the parents of HENRY STRICKLAND, b. 1792 in NC. When and where did he marry his 1st wife, MIRIAM COPELAND? Where was he educated? His 2nd wife was LOUISA SMITH (m. 1 July 1841 in Tatt-nall Co); his 3rd wife was MARTHA MCCALL (m. 23 Sept. 1847 in Tatt-nall Co).

EDITOR'S NOTE: The queries from George McCall and Edra Young are for the same family. Much information on this family is printed in PIONEERS OF WIREGRASS GEORGIA by Folks Huxford (7 Volumes). Mr. Huxford states HENRY STRICKLAND came to Tatt-nall Co. in his youth with his widowed mother. (Vol. 4 PP. 284-285) HENRY was a half-brother to AARON STRICKLAND. AARON, b. 1780 in NC, came to Tatt-nall Co. ca. 1815 (Vol. 2 p. 262). Has anyone checked the Wills & Estate records of NC, or the guardianship records? It appears that HENRY and AARON were sons of the same man by different wives. If AARON had already moved to GA. when his father died, a will or an inventory of his father's estate (NC) might mention this fact.

EUCHEE CLAN OF CREEK INDIANS

At Vernon, Florida

Strickland Research, Inc. received the following letter from the Chairperson of the Euchee Clan of Creek Indians in Vernon, Florida. It is being reprinted with permission of Mrs. Walter (Thelma) Steverson.

Rt. 1 Box 146
Vernon, Fla. 32462

Dear Mrs. Cornell,

I got this name and address from a copy of The Armchair Researcher at the Bay County Library in Panama City, Florida. We have several families of Stricklands (including other spellings) in our area. (Washington & Holmes Counties)

I'm not related to the Stricklands, but am chairperson of the Euchee Clan of Creek Indians at Vernon, Fla., and am trying to help some of our people trace their ancestry. (Particularly to a full blood Indian)

Mr. Jesse Strickland of P. O. Box 41, Vernon, Fla., has given me the following information and would like help. If you have any of the needed information (especially who to contact to trace his other lines) it will be appreciated.

JESSE L. STRICKLAND, b. 9-23-1914 Holmes County, Florida
m. 4-?-1942 to MARILYN SELLERS.

His Father: MATTHEW YOUNG STRICKLAND, b. 1887 Coffee County, Ala. m. 3-18-1906 to BERTIE B. PELHAM in Holmes County, Fla. d. Feb. 1923 in Geneva County, Ala. buried Holmes County, Fla.

Grandfather: YOUNG MUNROE STRICKLAND b. 1851 in Barbour County, Ala. m. ? to SAMATHE HOLLAND d. 7-30-1919(?) in Holmes County, Fla.

Great-grandfather: DAVID STRICKLAND b. (?) Cumberland County, NC. m. ? to PEARLA G. WOODS d. ?

Great-great-grandfather: RICHARD STRICKLAND, b. ? m. SARAH ? d. ?

Children of Y. M. & SAMATHA STRICKLAND:
JIM, BAILEY, MATTHEW Y., BARNEY, TOM (?), ELVIS, BETHEY, BELL

Children of DAVID & PEARLA STRICKLAND:
MORRIS, JOHN, ADEAIL, WM. GREEN, GEO. RUFUS

Thank you.

Yours truly,
Thelma Steverson

I was so interested in Thelma Steverson's Clan and the Strickland's connected to it, I wrote her and asked permission to reprint her letter. I also asked if she could tell me a little about the Euchee Clan of Creek Indians. She replied by sending me 2 Strickland Ancestor Charts and information on the Northwest Florida Creek Indians:

The Okchals (Okchias) migrated to West Florida from what is now Central-North Alabama in perhaps the mid-1700's. The Okchals (some of whom remained in the Alabama area) were associated with the Koasati Tribe, and are credited with giving Creek place names to many West Florida geographic features. The Euchee Clan is a split from the Okchia.

The Creek Confederacy consisted of numerous associated tribes and bands. Many of their women intermarried with white traders and other frontiersmen, whose descendants often remained behind when their Indian kinsmen moved west of the Mississippi. An amazing number of such descendants, now many generations removed from their Indian ancestors, populate this area today.

There are two or three hundred in this area, plus others in surrounding counties, trying to prove their Indian ancestry. We are learning, and want our children and grandchildren to learn their native dances, arts & crafts, and language. I believe the Muscogee language is to be offered at Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City this fall.

I presume you know that the Seminoles are really Creeks. Seminole means "runaway" or "frontiersman" in Muscogee (Muskogee) language.

Thelma's name in the Muscogee language is Turwv Totkv or "Fire Eyes."

A pamphlet on "Florida Governor's Council On Indian Affairs" and a booklet about the "6th Annual Florida Pow Wow, October 14-15, 1977, Vernon, Florida" were submitted by Thelma Steverson and have been placed in the Strickland Library.

If any of our members can be of help to the researchers of the Euchee Clan or have the needed information for Jesse Strickland, please reply to Thelma Steverson, Rt. 1 Box 146, Vernon, Florida 32462.
