FOURTH QUARTER 1984

EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Members,

At Last! The 4th issue of Volume 5 is going out! My thanks to all of you for your patience!

I know this is early to mention our Annual Meeting, but we would like your opinions on where you would prefer this year's meeting to be held. Since it takes months of planning, decisions have to be made quite awhile in advance, and we would like your suggestions. I have included a short questionnaire on the renewal sheet. If you have other ideas as to location or suggestions for activities during our 2-day event, use the back of the sheet. We welcome all of your ideas. After all, this organization belongs to all of us.

I am always so pleased when I hear from a member who has been helped by another member. Eddie Womack and Brenda Bailey learned of each other through another member, our president, Freeman Strickland. By putting their research notes together, Eddie and Brenda were able to put together a few more pieces in their family puzzle. I appreciate, and I am certain others appreciate, the response of our members to queries printed in our quarterly. I have worked with a number of genealogical researchers over the years, but I do not believe I have ever known of a family group more willing to share than the Stricklands.

My thanks to several people who responded to my call for help in indexing Strickland Scene. Virginia M. Blue indexed the first issue while Jane Shelton and her mother indexed the other issues. Jane and her mother are working on a Place Name index for Volumes 1-3. Their Place Name indices for Volume 4 and 5 are included in this issue.

I am working on Volume 6 Number 1 and will get it completed as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Nancy Cornell

STRICKLANDS IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA

The following biographical sketches are from ATLANTA AND ENVIRONS, A Chronicle Of Its People and Events, Family and Personal History, Volume III, published by Lewis Historical Publishing Company, Inc., 1954.

PAUL BRIDGES STRICKLAND - From the early years of the century Paul Bridges Strickland has been engaged in the hardware business in Atlanta, and is now vice president of the Beck Gregg Hardware Company. Born on June 27, 1883 near Concord, Georgia, Mr. Strickland is the son of James Carey and Martha Rebecca (Oxford) Strickland, both of whom were natives of the state of Georgia. James Carey Strickland was a farmer by occupation, who served with Doles Cook's Brigade of the 44th Georgia Regiment, Confederate States Army....In 1905 Mr. Strickland (Paul) came to Atlanta, which has been his home since. He was first connected with the Anderson Hardware Company, remaining there until 1912. The following year he formed the connection in which he has continued since...Mr. Strickland is not a fraternalist, but he is a devoted worker in the cause of the Baptist Church. He is unmarried.

FREEMAN STRICKLAND is a senior vice president of the First National Bank of Atlanta and has been with that bank and predecessor organizations from the beginning of his career. He is likewise a leader in the affairs of his city and the cause of education. Born September 17, 1902, in La Grange, Freeman Strickland is a son of Willis Howard Strickland, Sr., who is identified as owner with the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Richland, and is active in several other business connections. Willis Howard Strickland was born in Troup County, August 6, 1878, son of W. W. and Susan (Fuller) Strickland, the former a native of Troup County and the latter of Fredonia.

On December 26, 1900, Willis Howard Strickland married Ruth Freeman of Troup County. They became the parents of three sons: 1. Freeman; 2. Willis Howard, Jr.; 3. Leon...In Atlanta on September 17, 1932, Freeman Strickland married Ruth Rowbotham, daughter of George Walter and Charlotte (Chapman) Rowbotham. Mr. and Mrs. Strickland are the parents of two children: 1. Ruth R., who was born on January 16, 1936; 2. Freeman, Jr., born March 6, 1938. The family resides at 998 Stovall Boulevard, Northeast...and attend Peachtree Road Methodist Church.

(Editor's Note: In 1954, a 3 volume set, ATLANTA AND ENVIRONS, was published. Mr. Franklin Miller Garrett, noted Atlanta historian, was the author of the first two volumes which are considered the most extensive books ever written on the history of Atlanta.)

OBITUARY OF ELIZABETH STRICKLAND McCONNELL, June 3, 1873.

Contributed by Benjamin H. Dennison, Jr.

"Intelligence has reached me of the death of sister ELIZABETH McCONNELL, wife of ISAAC McCONNELL, formerly of Cherokee county, Ga., now living in Parker county, Texas. Her numerous friends in Georgia will feel sad to hear of this, for she was highly esteemed by all who knew her. It was my good fortune to be often at her happy home. I was with the family the last night they spent in their house in Georgia, and witnessed some of the last farewells of her neighbors. I remember her sweet, cheerful, hopeful spirit, how ready she was to go to Texas for the future welfare of her children. She seemed to live to make others happy. She was a loving wife and mother, a good neighbor, and above all a devoted Christian. She was born August 22d, 1820, near Lawranceville, Ga., joined the Church in 1830, and died June 3, 1873. Her husband writes, "My wife has been confined to her room and bed for the last eight months, gradually growing worse until the 3d day of June, when she died, remaining in her usual mind to the last, and asking us not to grieve for her. A while before she died, she said, 'Is this death? If so, I never felt so sweet.' She died in the full triumphs of a gospel faith. I have no doubts of her acceptance with God." Wm. A. SIMMONS.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

If the Strickland men had used their first names instead of initials, it would be easier to trace them. Even today, my cousins will say, "I am J. D. Strickland," etc. Who knows if he is Joseph, James, John or Josiah? Using initials is evidently a hand-me-down from generations ago. -Mrs. Anne Clanton Knecht, Charlotte Harbor, FL.

NOTES ON SAMPSON & CHRISTIANA STRICKLAND OF NORTH CAROLINA from Eddie Womack:

My thanks to Freeman Strickland who wrote to Brenda Bailey of Aliceville, AL, and mentioned my research. We exchanged information and found that she was a cousin, being descended from Brinkley Strickland of NC and Pickens Co., AL. Brinkley was a brother of my great grandfather, Obediah Powell Strickland. By comparing land deeds, family legend and census records, we have established that:-

Obediah Powell Strickland, Abel Strickland (b. 1804) and Greene Strickland (b. 1810) were all brothers living adjoining each other in Pickens Co., AL, from 1840 to 1866. Obediah Strickland Sr. (b. Franklin Co., NC, 1763 - d. Pickens Co., AL, 1842) was their father. Their mother was Winnie _____. Obediah Sr. is buried on land owned by Obediah Powell Strickland at the time.

Brenda Bailey's grandmother knew that her great great grandfather Brinkley Strickland (b. 1785, NC) was the son of Obediah Strickland Sr. So, it appears we have found the missing link after all. Obediah Strickland Sr. is the son of Samson (Sampson) and Christina (Christiana), and brother to Abel, Lott, Braswell (Brasil), Matthew, and Samson Jr.
